Casting Call - Charlie White

Images from Charlie White's Casting Call, *a daylong casting call aimed at locating one "California Girl" between the ages of 13 and 16 to appear on a Los Angeles billboard as part of the LAXART Billboard Project series. This live performance [invited] viewers to witness the entire casting process within LAXART, where a windowed wall [divided] the main exhibition space into two areas: a casting office on one side, and a public viewing room for onlookers on the other. from the press release

If you haven't seen his earlier Teen and Transgender Comparative Study series, I recommend seeking them out- it is a fantastic series:
